DUNKERTON MILLENNIUM BOOK ON SALE AGAIN

After a second sell-out, the Parish Council is pleased to announce a third reprint of the hugely popular Millennium book is now available hot off the press!! It provides a lively snapshot of the parish at a memorable time, and provides an excellent summary in words and pictures of the busy, hard social and industrial history that made the parish what it is today as revealed through many familiar scars on the landscape. Copies are available from David Orme (see Page 4)

DUNKERTON ANNUAL SHOW

Saturday 8 September 2018

Once again there was an excellent display of handicrafts and home produce at the Annual Show and despite the long hot dry summer, the flowers and vegetables were equally impressive.

The judges, Nick Dixon, Sophie Smith, Sue Snook and Ed Collacott provided helpful feedback to the exhibitors.

A lot of work, time and imagination had gone into the Junior entries and the well deserved trophy winners were Imogen Dallimore and Tilly While.

Nick Barrett's bread won the May Gooding Cup for the best home produce entry. Competition was so close that two trophies were shared. Lesia Gardner and Angela Crofts were joint winners of the Butt Memorial Picture. There was a four way tie for the McDougall Cup between Jo Harrison, Sue Summers, Sue Wagstaff and Alison Gibbs who will each hold the cup for three months. Other winners were Charlotte de Grey, Sally Uphill and Ann Meloy.

Competitive bidding in the auction of produce generated over £130 for Hall funds, including a record bid of £15 for a jar of Dunkerton honey, to round off an enjoyable social occasion. Special thanks go to the judges and all who assisted including Grace Wharton who served the refreshments.

HARVEST-TIME PICNIC

Sausages sizzled over the fire pit, paper boats were made and floated down the stream, artworks were created on the ground and about 25 people enjoyed a picnic in the Manders Orchard to celebrate harvest on September 2nd. Donations placed in a box for Send a Cow amounted to a fantastic £135, which will help to provide livestock and training in sustainable farming to some of Africa's poorest farmers, helping them to create their own harvests in the future. Well done all.

MORNING PRAISE

The introduction of Morning Praise - a service of hymns, a reading, a talk and time for reflection, lasting about 40 minutes and followed by coffee - worked well and we were pleased to welcome Priston to enjoy it with us. This will now be the regular service on the second Sunday of the month and we hope it will attract some people who find communion services long and unattractive.

The regular pattern of services is:

1st Sunday	Community Church (variable)
2nd Sunday	Morning Praise 9.30
3rd Sunday	Family Service 11.15
4th Sunday	Holy Communion 9.30
5th Sunday	Benefice Service (variable)

Future Dates For Your Diary:

Sun 2 Dec, 4.00pm - Christingle
 Tue 25 Dec, 9.30 - Christmas Day Service
 Sun 23 Dec, 5.00pm - Carols by Candlelight followed by mulled wine and mince pies in the Parish Hall

Mon 24 Dec, 4.30pm - Crib Service
 Tue 25 Dec, 9.30 - Christmas Day Service

REMEMBRANCE SERVICE 11 NOVEMBER – AN INVITATION from David Orme

One hundred years after the end of the first world war, this year's Remembrance Service will form part of the "Battle's Over" activities you will read about in The Batch.

It is an opportunity to make the service as relevant as we can to people in the parish. So if there is anything you might like to contribute in or around the usual formalities of the Remembrance, either something personal to you, or your family or friends' memories or stories, or something more general relating to the effects or impact of conflicts past and present, please get in touch and we can plan it in. Ring 0773 415271 or email daveorme56@gmail.com

What a super day we had when the OVO Cycle Race of Great Britain come through Tunley. Despite the fact it was all over in a couple of minutes it was lovely to see so many of us line the road and even catch a fleeting glimpse of some of us on the television! Tom is putting together photos for the TRC

Facebook so please contact him if you have any video or photos to share.
tom@kingwilliaminn.co.uk

Another great day was had at the Woof Its Fun Dog Show. The sun shone (most of the time) and everyone appeared to have a good time. Lots of rosettes and prizes spread around. The bakers of Tunley did us proud with an outstanding spread – and because it was all for a good cause, the cakes were of course, calorie free!!! Enormous thanks have to go to Christine and Ann who manned the tea and cake supplies. To Megan Johnston who did a brilliant and difficult job of judging our show entries ably supported by her steward (and Mum) Sharon. To team Woof-Its Carol and Adam Smart, who were there from start to end, Tricia and Adrian Jones, Andy Smart (who kindly manned the megaphone). To Helen and Erica organising entries and a steady supply of prizes, and all of the other Tunley'ites who pitched in and gave a hand. Adam (the show's official photographer) must have photographed every dog several times, look out for them on the TRC Facebook. Thanks to the generous sponsorship received from Fish4Dogs, Columbar Pets of Midsomer Norton, Helen Nowak and Woof-its Dog Training all of the money raised will go to the Tunley Recreation Centre.

Led by Lorraine and Helen the day raised a whopping £193 THANK YOU!

CPCC's Successful End to a Long Hot Season

After a difficult season, Camerton & Peasedown Croquet Club's two AC teams were determined to finish on a high. The Federation League team took on East Dorset in Poole. Colin Britt beat their captain 26:6 with an hour to spare, while Ros Key-Pugh ground out a 21-16 win. The doubles match went to full time as well, being won on the golden hoop. The afternoon was a different story. Two singles were lost, before Colin, trailing, took his ball almost round the lawn to peg out in one turn just as time was called. CPCC finished 5:2 up.

Earlier Kington Maurward had come to Peasedown with a strong team that included Jonathan Powe who is selected for the England AC World Championship team.

Although, Colin held him to a 24:21 win, overall the team lost the match 2:3.

On the hottest day of the year, CPCC's inexperienced 'B' League AC team played their last match against Lym Valley. Tied at lunch, their determination to break their string of defeats was rewarded with a 3:2 win and revived confidence for their second season.

The Federation Level Play GC team struggled in their final two matches. There was one compensation for defeats by a very strong team from Nailsea and by Dyffryn; the latter was played on the stately lawns of the National Trust's Dyffryn House, Glamorgan.

Dyffryn was also the venue for the Welsh Dragon Level "B" Trophy Competition won by CPCC's Ros Key-Pugh. Sadly, it was the last croquet to be played there since the NT has made it untenable for the club to continue. No longer will NT visitors be entertained or coached there, unlike at Peasedown.

42 guests from the MSN Rotary Club, followed by 36 from regional Women's Institutes enjoyed learning and playing croquet, imbibing drinks and food until the sun set.

If you too would like to taste the fun of croquet contact Mo Boys on 01225-708540.
